

PRIX PAM MCLERNON
VOLUNTEER
ENGAGEMENT
AWARD
NOMINATION
GUIDE
2022

The Pam McLernon Volunteer Engagement Award aims to honour a volunteer, an ambassador, a member of the Young Leaders Circle, an organizer or a community initiative (fundraising event) organizing committee whose commitment to the Foundation and to the cause has had a major positive impact.

Award

The winner of the Pam McLernon Volunteer Engagement Award will receive a trophy engraved with his/her name and will be honoured on stage at the Foundation's Annual Gala, to be held on April 27, 2022 at the Maison symphonique de Montréal.

Who may submit a nomination?

Nominations may be submitted by the candidates themselves, by an employee of the Québec Breast Cancer Foundation, or by any person who wishes to nominate a person or group who meets the following eligibility.

Eligibility conditions

- To be nominated for an Award of Excellence, a person must be a Canadian citizen or have permanent residence and must reside in Québec.
- The candidate contribution must be to the benefit of the Québec Breast Cancer Foundation.
- A nominee may not receive the same award more than once.
- An award is presented to only one person, but may be presented to more than one person in the case of a community initiative organizing committee.
- A nomination of a person convicted of a criminal offence is inadmissible.
- An award may not be presented posthumously, unless the decision by a jury to bestow the award was made before the winner's death.

Selection

Eligible candidates are evaluated by a selection committee comprised of employees of the Québec Breast Cancer Foundation.

The selected candidate will be contacted by the Foundation to confirm their acceptance of the award.

Selection criteria

The sole criterion for selection is the impact of the volunteer's commitment, or, in other words, their contribution.

The term can be taken in the broad sense. It can represent both the exceptional duration of the candidate's volunteer commitment, the remarkable amount raised by a community initiative (fundraising event), as well as a contribution that has marked a community by its originality.
